DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Michael et al. (Michael), U.S. Patent Application Pub. 2004/0170263.

Regarding claims 1-33, Michael discloses a method for facilitating wireless presence-based services comprising: receiving, by a wireless presence proxy (WPP) from a presence server, a buddy list presence update for a mobile station (MS); maintaining, by the WPP, buddy list presence information reflecting the buddy list presence update for the MS; and when a condition for updating the MS exists, sending, by the WPP, presence information from the buddy list presence information to update the MS (see Figs. 2 and 4 and pages 1-3, paragraphs [0017] to [0029]).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Bells et al. US 2004/0116137, discloses a system and method of wireless instant messaging.

Art Unit: 2686

McDowell et al. US 2002/0035605, discloses use of presence and location information concerning wireless subscribers for instant messaging and mobile commerce.
